Computer Language

Assignment

Use CSS to decorate the pages

If you dont have data and then add some dummy data

- create your resume with following sections
  - personal information
  - education qualification
  - work experience
  - projects worked one
  - technologies you are expert in
- create a small website for restaurant with following pages
  - index page which has information about the restaurant
  - page to show all the dishes served
  - contact form to get an order from customer
    - customer name
    - phone number
    - email address
    - address